1. The Role of the Board

The Board's role is to provide entrepreneurial leadership of the Company within the framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risk to be assessed and managed.

The Board sets the Company's strategic aims, ensures that the necessary financial and human resources are in place for the Company to meet its objectives and reviews the performance of the investment management company.

The Board sets the Company's values and standards and ensures that its obligations to its shareholders and others are understood and met.

All Directors must take decisions objectively and act in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and the general duties of directors specified therein:-

- i) to act within powers;
- ii) to promote the success of the Company;
- iii) to exercise independent judgement;
- iv) to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence;
- v) to avoid conflicts of interest;
- vi) not to accept benefits from third parties; and
- vii) to declare any interest in a proposed transaction or arrangement.

The Board should constructively challenge and help develop proposals on strategy, scrutinise the performance of the investment management company in meeting agreed goals and objectives and monitor the reporting of performance. They should satisfy themselves on the integrity of financial information and that financial controls and systems of risk management are robust and defensible.

The Board retains overall responsibility for the Company's affairs, however, subject to the final sanction or veto of the Board, if imposed, certain of these responsibilities have specifically been delegated to committees of the Board. The detail and extent of such delegation is set out in the terms of reference of these committees. In addition, the Board has, through an Investment Management Agreement and through specific instructions, delegated the day to day management of the company to the Manager, Artemis Fund Managers Limited.

Save as summarised above, and as may be delegated from time to time, all other matters in relation to the company's affairs are reserved for the Board. The items set out below outline specific reserved matters but are not intended to provide an exhaustive list and are subject to amendment by the Board.
