Dear Sirs

Declaration of Institutional Investor status

We understand that in accordance with the Prospectus of the Company (as amended and updated from time to time)(the "Prospectus") and the Luxembourg Law (as defined in the Prospectus), only those entities which qualify as institutional investors are eligible to invest in I class shares offered by the Company. Examples of institutional investors includes entities which fall into one or more of the following categories: credit institutions; investment funds; insurance and reinsurance companies; social security institutions; pension funds; charitable or government institutions; local authorities and financial or industrial groups.

We declare that we are an institutional investor and understand that we have been approved as eligible to invest in one or more of the I share classes offered by the Company on the basis of this declaration.

If we are acting as a discretionary portfolio manager for one or more of our clients, we confirm that we will, if the relevant clients is/are natural person(s), ensure that the relevant shares will at all times be held by us in our own name in one of our own securities accounts. If the relevant client(s) terminate(s) any such arrangement with us, we will ensure that the shares are transferred to another institutional investor(s) holding the shares in its own name on the client's behalf.

Yours faithfully
